Understanding Recovery From Eating Disorders (Teen Eating Disorder Prevention Book)

Synopsis

For today's teens, self-esteem is inextricably connected to body image. This series provides teens with crucial information about eating disorders, body image, and health. Its body-positive message will boost teens' self-esteem and help them learn to love their bodies. Recovery from an eating disorder is a slow, often painful process, requiring physical as well as psychological change. This book offers first-person testimony by survivors of various types of eating disorders, along with advice and support for teens who are heading down the long road to recovery.
