5 stars8/15- 9/4I was greatly blessed by God and the author with a complimentary copy of this book. I wanted to buy a copy of the book in hardback but I could not afford it right now. I sent a message to the author on his Facebook page. I told him that if he could send me a copy of his book I would share my review everywhere I could. I would have done the same if I had bought the book, I like it so much. He graciously sent me a copy. Not only a copy but a hardback copy. Not only a hardback copy but a signed hardback copy. A kingdom to win.â • (pg 14) The characters â “ memorable, well developed, superb. You love the â œgood guysâ • â | battling, doing their duty and more, fighting the bad guys, rescuing friends and relatives, healing the sick and injured, and doing the next right thing....and despise the â œbad guys.â • â œFrom behind the immovable guard, Kyle appeared, Heather's inside churned. Here he was, this handsome, charming, disarming scoundrel.â • â œWhat's in the past, Kyle, and what we can't forget, Princeling,â • Heather said, â œis our friendship destroyed, our friends murdered, and our future king betrayed.â • pg 111 I did not trust Kyle or his father, but the author writes well and I was lured into a tentative hope...
